

NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

College of Liberal Arts

Offers a broad program of college subjects serving as a foundation for the understanding of modern culture, social relations, and technical achievement. The purpose of this program is to give the student a liberal and cultural education and a vocational competence which fits him to enter some specific type of useful employment.

College of Business Administration

Offers a college program with broad and thorough training in the principles of business with specialization in ACCOUNTING, BANKING AND FINANCE, or BUSINESS MANAGEMENT. Modern methods of instruction, including lectures, solution of business problems, class discussions, professional talks by business executives, and motion pictures of manufacturing processes, are used.

College of Engineering

Provides complete college programs in Engineering with professional courses in the fields of CIVIL, MECHANICAL (WITH DIESEL, AERONAUTICAL and AIR CONDITIONING OPTIONS), ELECTRICAL, CHEMICAL, INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING, and ENGINEERING ADMINISTRATION. General engineering courses are pursued during the freshman year; thus the student need not make a final decision as to the branch of engineering in which he wishes to specialize until the beginning of the sophomore year.

Co-operative Plan

The Co-operative Plan, which is available to upperclassmen in all courses, provides for a combination of practical industrial experience with classroom instruction. Under this plan the student is able to earn a portion of his school expenses as well as to make business contacts which prove valuable in later years.

NORGE Leads Again

You will marvel at the beautiful design of the NORGE ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR, its extremely economical cost of operation, and its mechanical simplicity. No connecting rods, no pistons, no piston pins, no piston rings. Just simply a roller rolling slowly around and there's ice. The height of simplicity.

NORGE AUTO BILT WASHERS, built to last a life time, are quiet and will stay quiet. I would like to explain the marvelous features of this washer to you, if you are in the market for a Washer.

NORGE ELECTRIC RANGES in several colors and designs, with features that make this Range outstanding in the Electric Range field. NORGE COMBINATION GAS AND HEATER RANGE. This range is taking the public by storm. It is by far the most beautiful Range you have ever seen—such features and design that if you are in the market for a Range let me show you this Range and explain all its features to you. And when you hear the price you will be pleasantly surprised.

At this time I wish to congratulate all those who have wisely selected NORGE. And as NORGE is taking the country by storm, I sincerely wish to thank the people of Thompsonville for their wonderful and wise selection of Norge.

ADDRESS OF WELCOME

(By Allan Comrie)

Parents, Teachers, and Friends:

As President of the Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty-seven, it is my sincere pleasure and privilege to welcome you to these our Class Night Exercises.

We are closing one of the most interesting and enjoyable chapters of our lives made possible only thru the sacrifices of our parents, the untiring efforts of our instructors, and the interest of the townspeople as a whole. Throughout the four year course in Enfield High our class has aimed to attain a goal that could be respected by future classes. This, we sincerely believe, has been accomplished not only through the diligent work of the class but also by the careful guidance of our parents and teachers.

Again in behalf of the Class of 1937 I extend to you a most cordial welcome to our Class Night Exercises.

CLASS HISTORY

(By Walter Los)

Deep in the history of the Class of 1937 lie the memories of helpful teachers, friendly classmates. The history I shall give will be a few of the high-lights of our school life.

In September, 1933, we entered the E. H. S. labeled for convenience as freshmen. Today with half of them gone—a few more new-comers—we are about to embark upon careers in the cold wide world. Funny, it never seems sad until you're a senior.

Soon after our enrollment in the E. H. S. we became acquainted with detention slips. We knew that the word detention meant "delay" and many of the pupils who had the honor of first receiving them felt rather embarrassed. (The reasons for their embarrassment were, the buses were to leave at 5 o'clock and they were hungry.)

The main event of our short lived Freshman year was the election of officers which resulted as follows: President, Ed. White; Vice-President, Jane Pierz; Secretary, Agnes Pohorylo; Treasurer, Allan Campbell; Executive Committee, Marion Davis and Robert Furey.

The first social activity in which we as freshmen played was the annual Hi-Y Minstrel entitled, "Hi-Y Military Grand Minstrel," under the direction of John A. Langford. We were happy to have Barney Buscemi, one of our class, as soloist.

September, 1934, found us as highly sophisticated Sophomores. September also brought around a rank of superiority to us over the freshmen as we were able to attend the morning session with the upperclassmen and also join the school clubs and participate in varsity athletics.

A few weeks after our return to school we held the class elections of officers which resulted as follows: President, Eddie White; Vice-President, Jane Pierz; Secretary, Stella Petraska; Treasurer, Allan Campbell; Executive Committee, Marion Davis and Allan Comrie.

Our Class of '37 was fairly well represented in the operetta "Hulda of Holland" by William Richards, Barney Buscemi and Michael Marrinaccio, but in the school play, "Growing Pains", we were represented not in the cast but in the orchestra (maybe it was the title and our self-consciousness that kept us away). Many of us had the honor to partake in the 300th Anniversary of the Founding of the American High Schools which was celebrated by a pageant.

The shadow of bereavement overtook us as Christy Sylvester, one of our class, was taken away by the hand of death.

The Hi-Y Minstrel entitled, "Hi-Y Circus Minstrel", received our share of participants and two outstanding endmen, Stanley Parvelac and Barney Buscemi.

And as time waits for no one we were soon leaving our sorrow and happiness behind us and ready for our junior year.

Juniors—We're the tops—so we thought.

In a short time the annual class election of officers was held, of which was the following result: President, Eddie White; Vice-President, Jane Pierz; Treasurer, Allan Campbell; Secretary, Stella Petraska; Executive Committee, Allan Comrie, Marion Davis.

The annual Hi-Y Minstrel was given under the direction of Mr. John A. Langford with a large number of Juniors participating.

The next social activity of the year was the school play entitled "Charley's Aunt", directed by Miss Meyer. We were well represented in this play by William Richards' acting.

The annual Junior Prom was held with the following as host:

Bill Fuge and Hostess, Jane Pierz. The hall was decorated with blue and gold, our class colors. The prom was a social success.

At the end of the junior year only one athlete received a letter for his ability in Athletics and that was Walter Los, who holds at present the Western Massachusetts, Valley Wheel and Enfield half-mile records and the Enfield quarter-mile run record.

The Junior year seemed the shortest of the three years we had attended. The reason for this might be because of our constant thinking about our senior year.

After three years of hard work the time finally arrives when we the Class of '37 were enrolled as seniors.

The yearly elections were held and the results were as follows: President, Allan Comrie; Vice-President, Jane Pierz; Treasurer, Ned Hines; Secretary, Stella Petraska; Executive Committee, Doris Paradise and Elliot Donnelly.

The annual Hi-Y Minstrel this year entitled, "Air Revue", was given in December by the Hi-Y Club under the direction of Mr. John A. Langford. The following seniors played leading parts in the minstrel: William Richards, Stanley Parvelac, Armand Sarno and Daniel Misuraca. With the much needed assistance of Mr. Langford, part of the cast was heard over a Hartford Broadcasting Station.

The Senior Prom was held in December with Allan Comrie as Host and Margaret Fitzgerald as Hostess. Music was furnished by "Eddie Abrahamson and His Commanders." The affair was a social success.

Before the Christmas Holiday our Head of the English Department, Miss Zilpha Meyer, resigned for marital reasons and was succeeded by Miss Helen Javorski.

January brought around the preliminaries of the Valley Wheel One-Act Play Contest which was held in our auditorium on Friday, January 22. We emerged the victor over Ludlow who presented "Will You Marry Me?" and Easthampton who presented "The Tangled Web." The following seniors took part in our play entitled, "Thank You, Doctor:" Margaret Fitzgerald, William Richards, Carl Johnson and Allam Campbell, under the direction of Miss Brakel.

The finals were held on Wednesday of the following week at Enfield. The result is as follows: First, West Springfield with "Dust of the Road"; Enfield second with "Thank You, Doctor" and third, Monson with "His Soul."

Frank Cybulski, well known and loved by the seniors, was taken by death during the March vacation after a short illness.

The operetta "Pirates of Penzance" was held in April under the direction of Miss Helen Javorski and Mr. Wesley Merritt. Carl Johnson a member of our class played a leading part.

A social party was given for the entire cast of the operetta and at this affair members of the football and basketball teams were presented with letters.

Allan Comrie and Miss Hedenburg received medals, presented by the D. A. R. at the Memorial Day Assembly, for the best citizenship.

A class history cannot be given without even mentioning the boys who were outstanding in the various sports. They are as follows: Labutis, Fuge, Nye, Dubiel, Disiacca, Los, Eddy, Sas, Hines and Malley.

Seniors, and slightly scared about it all—sort of wishing time would drag—instead, it flies as we draw dangerously close to the cold world. We are glad about lots of things, and although we missed plenty—we'll miss more—especially Enfield.

CLASS PROPHECY

(By Lillian Gardner, Virginia Alden, Leon Bajek, Anthony DiLorenzo)

Back in the days when we were seniors in Enfield High, a school newspaper was started which was a great success. Since then members of this talented class have achieved fame in different walks of life in all parts of the world.

We have had the good fortune of acquiring information about each and every member and have organized a special edition. If in so doing we have shown that that spark of talent, kindled in those carefree days, has burst into a flame of achievement, we will have served our purpose.

Cooperating with me in this task are Miss Virginia Alden, Mr. Leon Bajek and Mr. Anthony DiLorenzo.

LOCAL NEWS

Mayor William Cowles orders guards to shoot any strange person trying to approach the plane which crashed, on its test flight in Enfield, with no serious injury to passengers. Dr. Thomas Smyth and his nurse, Frances Vella, rushed to the scene to administer first aid.

Among those reported on board were Jane Pierz, M. G. M. star, escorted by Director Richard Snyder; "The Soup Brothers"—Soup Campbell, Allan Comrie and Elliot Donnelly, who have recently hit stardom; and Roy Broege, "The Million Dollar Producer," escorting Genevieve Starr, who is known as the "Rhumba Songstress."

The plane was piloted by Arthur Allen with Bob Hastings as assistant. "Tracy Nye" and "G-Men" Francis Dubiel and Stanley Krzys conducted the investigation. Their first reports indicated that the plane was brought down by Public Enemy No. 1, "Two-Gun" Ganner and his runner-up, Arthur Gemme, with the help of their "Gun Molls", Peggy Fitzgerald and Shirley Wetherell. However, final reports prove that the party arrested were "happy-go-lucky" bachelors and divorcees trying to have some fun.

T'ville's own Harriet Sheehan and Chester Simborski are rapidly succeeding the sensational Mae West and Clark Gable in popular favor.

Professor Anthony Di Lorenzo of "Pianka University" reported today that he would no longer labor to instruct Billy Richards, Enfield Playboy and heir to the Richard's Lumber Millions, until he learned that the classroom is not the place "to fling the woo" with "Ducky Wucky" Carolyn Locke.

Dr. Leslie Dexter Green, brain surgeon, was busily engaged on Sullivan Avenue when Patrolman Leroy Fibkins forcefully reminded him that even a doctor's car can't be left in front of a hydrant.

The gentlemen farmers under the dynamic leadership of Mitchell Raffia, arrived in Washington today. They will present to Secretary of Agriculture, John Carey, a protest against the constant interference from that department.

Betty Leete, American aviatrix, flew to Enfield today to study weather conditions. She will take off for her "round the world flight" just as soon as weather permits.

United States' most original school recently completed by Contractor Leonard Montano has 200 air-conditioned rooms equipped with the newest gadgets. This ultra-modern building was designed by Edson Pierce. Miss Wanda Zawada, principal, has among her staff members Vinci Reveruzzi, teacher of psychology; Christine Verdi, outstanding lecturer; Josephine Zawada, famous authority on personal problems; Madison Tower, expert bacteriologist; and Virginia Pascucci, Personality Specialist.

SOCIAL NEWS

Of great interest to the members of the Class of '37 is the marriage of Miss Eleanor Smyth to an old classmate, Edward White. They were married by the famous Reverend James Ainsworth, who performed the double-ring ceremony. The bride, gowned in an ivory-satin creation, designed by Mademoiselle Eugley of Paris, carried a shower bouquet of roses from Mary Moran's Florist Shop.

Another important social event of the season is the Hedenburg-Hines nuptials. Mr. and Mrs. Hines plan to fly to Bermuda on Daniel Misuraca's plane. The two charming hostesses, Genevieve De Caro and Marion Davis will see that they both have an enjoyable trip.

Among the students to be graduated from Dr. Raymond Therrien's Hospital for Undernourished Children were Dorothy Adams and Anna Mokrycki, who will assume their duties at Enfield High School. Under the newly appointed principal, Robert Furey, Esquire, the school has less work and more play.

The Misses Florence Sperry and Louise Maggio have been employed as private secretaries to Charles Gatto who owns "Rendezvous Nite Club."

His patronage has increased tremendously since that popular songstress, Kathleen Brennen, has been featured on his program.

Last night, Miss Isabel Blown made her debut as organist at the Paramount Theater. Lillian Gardner now owns this showplace and has engaged as usherettes, Irene Custer, Eileen Cote, Vera Brahman and Marion Knight.

Smart women of today are realizing that to be correctly groomed, one must wear "clothes from Paradise." The style show presented last evening by the fashionable owner of the shop, Doris Paradise, was largely attended by socialities. The gowns which were modeled by Rita O'Brien, Jennie Barszcz, Josephine Gatto and Jennie Santanella will set the fashion trend for the season.

Warren Collins, James Sperry and Stanley Parvelac were guests of honor at a banquet which celebrated the third anniversary of "Brooksie's Milk and Egg Corporation."

Recently the Misses Stella Petraska, Ellen O'Hara and Matilda Cardone received their appointments as members of the New York City Police Force.

SPORTS NEWS

Hello, sport fans. This is your sports reporter bringing to you the highlights of the sports world.—The three tough tomatoes of the town, Stanley Kwiecienski, Charles Padegimas and Fred Wence are known to use the gym as an excuse to shave. When perspiration begins to drip on their faces it is said that they then use their razors. — Flash! — The masters of the fireball for the Yanks, Antonio Porto and Walter Landry, were beaned in a recent baseball game and are reported to be progressing favorably. — The golf tournament, which was played at the Ham Golf Course in Texas, was won by the chicken hearted and veteran resistance of Genevieve Muzyka and Rosamond Young.—Tom Malley and Chick Di Sciacca, limelight football rams, have signed a professional contract with the Boston Redskins.—Recently I attended the National Track and Field Meet at New York and witnessed several of the sport contests. I saw Robert Bergen make a nifty, prodigious leap of 16 feet, which was never before accomplished in athletic history. Mike Falkowski's jump was a close runner-up. Leon Bajek was proclaimed the new javelin champ. Stanley Sidor hurled himself into second place. The mile run featured

Walter Los, Pete Peters, and Steven Miller, noted pantherlike sprint men. These men ran the race in the opposite direction, because of a stray zoo ram chasing them.—Flash! "The champs of today are the caddies of yesterday," says "Jiggs" Furey, professional golf player and champ. This champ, who, incidentally, was never a caddy, beat ex-champ Walter Sas in a stiff game.—From the now famous Park Avenue ball lot we hear that "Lump" Renna and Frankie Barszcz play baseball in their shorts. What sliding "strawberries" these lads must wear on their hips!—The famous women polo players Wanda Rezos, Amelia Jesmainski, Elvira Sarno, and Bertha Ziemian report that fans at the edge of the field bleachers warned them away from the flag pole,—otherwise they would have crashed into it.—Frisky John Mokrycki, noted bowling star, is said to have missed Gerard O'Connor's dome with a bowler's ball, during the finals for the American Bowlers' Cup. Davy Martin, fellow sports reporter, insists an investigation be brought about for these "bean ballers."—Flash! Joe Labutis, Boston Bees leading home run hitter and pitcher, pulled a charley horse while on one of his famous runs.

FRIENDLY PRATTER

Lunched at Alden's Hash and Bean Palace and so intrigued by Joseph Angelica, the mustache fixer with a hand mirror, at the next table, that I ate very little.

Afterwards, stopped to hear a bare-chested Sampson in a leopard's skin lecture on the marvels of his Haber cure-all.

That testimonial dinner to Broadway's "greatest guy", Carl Johnson, was a rousing bravura. Among the many celebrities present were Frances Dubiel, who is now stand-in for Anita Louise; Harold Nuccio, clever cartoonist; and Mary Fay, noted imitator who has recently popped into the public eye.

On one of my wanders to small streets and corners of this vast globe, I encountered several interesting figures at a miniature carnival. Phyllis Bridge was recognized while trying to sell grass skirts to innocent bystanders.

Billed on the same show were those two Head Hunters, Stella Lizak and Rose Pitoniak, who have just returned from the African Jungle.

The latest writers to be hired by William Sloan, well-known producer in Hollywood, are Sophie Baltronis and Stella Poleski. They are writing for that little fellow of the funnies, Henry, who has finally decided to talk.

The last of the roaming violinists who wander from table to table in cafes seems to be—Armand Sarno—who is still strolling. A smiling, unctuous, troubador, he knows a thousand and one arias and likes to stand before you, swaying, dreamy-eyed, playing on and on.

A series of talks on what to buy and where to buy it has been launched on the public's ear by Mr. Philip La Russa, who still believes that his chain of stores is the best ever linked across our good old terra-firma.

An Algonquin regular lunch patron William Hanrahan, terribly impressed by the glittery names had his Big Moment the other noon. He had a real live actress as his luncheon guest. As he passed the table of Director Bill Fuge, master mind behind that unusual tableau presented nightly at the French Casino, he stopped and beamed: "I want you to meet Miss Vivian Antinore, she plays the Pearl in the Oyster Shell."

Social secretaries, Lucy Gaudet, Ruth Gourlie and Josephine Gurreri, have made out a celebrity list which they consider parfait for a New York tea. Here it is: Rita Mancini, high chieftess of blues; Alice Malides, rising young ventriloquist; Eleanor King, author of that popular best seller, "Man the Mighty"; Edward Ingraham, famous yachtsman; Helen Bielonko and Evelyn Hyde, noted fashion experts, and Allyn Eddy, youngest member of the Supreme Court.

This list, however, overlooked the No. 1 party whooper-upper Saverio Scavotto who amuses all with his clever non-sensical patter.

A complaint was received today from Genevieve McCormack who with her guests Helen Bielitz, famous news commentator; Valda Yaenicki, Olympic swimmer; Evelyn Wilson, outstanding in her secretarial work, and Phyllis Maxellon, popular radio comedian; have just returned from a cruise on Long Island. New York's most dazzling debutante stated: "It's been enough to have rough weather, but when a zeppelin tries to use your main mast for a mooring post that's too much." It seems that the zeppelin was piloted by Celia Olko and Helen Cybulski, who were only trying to crash what looked like a class reunion.

This completes the special edition of our newspaper. We hope that we have acquainted everyone with "tid-bits" of that famous Class of '37.

CLASS PRESENTATIONS—Part I

(By Mary Moran and Walter Landry)

These little gifts we give to you
 Are not to make you mad,
 For tomorrow night we graduate
 And we should be very glad.

Rita Mancini Bird
 Rita is our songbird
 And what a lovely voice!
 When we want sweet music
 Rita is our choice.

Virginia Alden Rouge
 Virginia is so pale
 Much to our objection,
 If she'll use this rouge
 'Twill better her complexion.

Genevieve DeCaro Aspirin
 You seem to have a headache
 When you want a pass,
 So use this box of aspirin
 And the headache will not last.

Margaret Fitzgerald Date Book
 To you we give this date book
 And hope that you will find,
 Enough dates and boyfriends
 To fill each space and line.

Marion Knight Mirror
 Here's another mirror
 To add to your collection,
 We hope that you'll enjoy yourself
 When gazing at your reflection.

Ellen O'Hara Bottle of Smiles
 With your smile you've a way
 Of making friends day by day,
 Bottle the smiles you have to spare
 Deliver to people who have great care.

Genevieve McCormack String
 In her spare time Gen's a clerk
 And from work she'd never shirk,
 If she'll tie her bundles with this string
 Her customers won't lose a thing.

Lucy Gaudet Broom
 Lucy works each afternoon
 So we give her this nice new broom,
 It will help to sweep things bright
 So sweep away with all your might.

Shirley Wetherell Writing Paper
 So Richard won't be lonesome
 We want to help him out,
 So if you use this paper
 He won't have cause to pout.

Harriet Sheehan Typewriter
 You should see her fingers
 Go up and down the keys,
 Then you wouldn't wonder
 Why the teachers she does please.

Wanda Rzesos Book on How to Mind Children
 Wanda has a job
 Taking care of babies,
 We hope this little book
 Will help her solve her worries.

Vinci Reveruzzi Funny Paper
 You always seem so serious
 It really is a shame,
 So read this funny paper
 And you'll never be the same.

Louise Maggio Roller Skates
 You deliver notices every noon
 And have come around from fall to June,
 So before you graduate
 We'll give you this pair of roller skates.

Stella Poleski Maybelline
 If you will use this maybelline
 Your eyes will be both bright and clean,
 They will shine like stars on high
 And that's the truth; not a lie.

Ellenor Smyth Coal Truck
 To Smitty we give this coal truck
 Because we know she drives,
 Then we know she'll drive it
 When depression time arrives.

Edson Pierce Camera
 Edson is a camera fan
 And someday will be a cameraman,
 We hope this camera will give you a start
 And with this camera never part.

Arthur Allen Flute
 When a flute near by you hear
 And the notes are sweet and clear,
 It's not an artist of great renown
 It's Arthur Allen going to town.

VARSITY ATHLETES, 1936-1937

- Tony Renna Jokebook
 Tony is always saying some witty pun
 And the jokes he tells are a lot of fun
 He tells his jokes at any time
 So we give him the jokebook to go with this rhyme.
- Leon Bajek Cane
 Who's that walking down the street
 With a gold-topped cane and light-stepping feet,
 It's Leon Bajek the village sheik Who has a date each night in the week.
- Robert Bergen Golfstick
 When he hits one for a mile
 You can see him flash that famous smile,
 But when he muffs an easy shot
 He throws his club out of the lot.
- Daniel Misuraca Paint Set
 As an artist you are widely known And your reputation has quickly grown,
 Someday you will gladly exclaim
 That this paint set brought you fame.
- Leonard Montana Oil Truck
 Leonard is an oil man
 And works on an oil truck,
 So we'll give him this for his very own
 And wish him lots of luck.
- Harold Nuccio Girl Doll
 Towards girls you act very shy
 We don't know the reason why,
 So look at this doll from year to year
 And your shyness will gradually disappear.
- George Nye Bottle of Glue
 At playing baseball he takes the prize
 He throws them wild and misses flies,
 We give to George this bottle of glue
 So that his errors can be few.
- Ned Hines Bankbook
 Ned is the boy who collects the dues
 And deposits it in the bank,
 That Ned works hard isn't news
 And to him we owe our thanks.
- Antonio Porto Scorebook
 You keep the score for our Enfield nine
 And as a manager you're very fine,
 Someday you will attain your dream
 By becoming the manager of a big-league team.
- Arthur Gemme Stilts
 These stilts will help to make you tall
 And we hope with them you'll never fall,
 But if you tumble and a limb you sprain
 Don't get discouraged, try again.
- Dexter Green Scales
 He weighs two hundred if he weighs five pounds
 He is always smiling and never frowns,
 So he better reduce; keep his weight down
 Or he'll be the fattest boy in town.
- Arthur Johnson Movie Magazine
 A movie star you ought to be
 If you had an opportunity,
 About your acting you always boast
 So to your ability we drink a toast.
- Helen Bielitz Box of Pep
 Helen better watch her step
 After eating this box of pep,
 She's sure to gain a lot of ground
 When she's not so slow moving around.
- Helen Bielonko Milk Pail
 We hear a rattle up the street
 It's Helen with our daily treat,
 A pail of milk to make us strong Trade with Helen; you can't go wrong.
- Fred Wence Fire Cracker
 You can never tell when Fred's around
 For he never makes any sound,
 So take this fire cracker and light the wick
 For making noise it'll turn the trick.
- Thomas Malley Rubber Apron
 In chemistry Tom stands out Of his great knowledge there is no doubt,
 He does the experiments with the greatest ease
 And in it gets A's not B's.

- Wanda Zawada.....Dictionary
Wanda is known for her large vocabulary
She must be a walking dictionary,
She knows the meaning of every word
And uses the longest you ever heard.
- John Mokrycki.....Horse
John is a farmer's son
And plowing the land isn't fun,
So take this horse it'll help your work
For we know you'll never shirk
- Janice Eugley.....Rowboat
A little row boat comes down the lake
With its rorer wide awake,
Hear her counting 4-6-8
A program of reducing weight.
- Alice Malides.....Comb
You have such nicely kept hair
Is all that we can say,
And so to you we give this comb
To always keep it that way.
- Celia Olko.....Permanent Pass Home
To our dainty little lass
We present this permanent pass,
And hope that she will never roam
Outside the path that leads to home.
- Stella Petraska....Shorthand Notebook
This steno pad we give you Because you're sure to win,
Every stenography contest
That you enter in.
- Jane Pierz.....Bottle of Polish
To keep your knowledge nice and bright Polish it with all your might,
Regardless of where you are
We hope you'll be a shining star.
- Rosamond Young.....Tennis Racket
Use this racket and you'll see
A tennis champion you're sure to be,
Even though you are so small
You are surely able to hit that ball.
- Elliott Donnelly.....Freckle Cream
Elliott Donnelly has freckles galore
He's got a thousand, if not more,
So put this cream upon your skin
And they'll disappear like a sad man's grin.
- Kathleen BrennanTastyeast
Tastyeast is tempting
To the appetite,
Eat plenty of it
And you'll get fat all right.
- Francis and Frances Dubiel
Identification Cards
No one can tell you two apart
For your names are alike from end to start,
Take these cards which we hope you'll enjoy
So one can tell the girl from the boy.
- Leroy Fibkins.....New Car
We can hear your car from a long way off
And the noise it makes is not very soft,
So take this new one, don't be a chump
And throw away the old one in the dump.
- Allan Campbell
Can of Campbell Soup
Campbell soup is named after you
It's very good soup and well named too,
So when some one asks you what's your name
Show him the can that brought you fame.
- John Carey.....Rattle
John is one of those silent boys
Who never makes any noise,
So shake this rattle with all your might
So we can tell when you're in sight.
- Josephine Zawada.....Wave Set
You always set milady's hair
With the very greatest care,
So you'll find this wave set handy
To make the waves come in just dandy.
- Vera Brahman.....Lunch Box
Use this box for your lunch
You'll find it handy we've a hunch,
While some of us eat to live it's true
You live to eat, we know you do.
- Doris ParadiseMan
How you always get the men
Is something we don't know,
So we give to you this little man
Now please put on a show.

- Matilda Cardone.....Toothpaste
 For a camel men would walk a mile Some would walk further for a
 smile,
 Use this toothpaste everyday
 To keep your smile always that way.
- Irene Custer.....Orange
 From California comes this lass
 To join us in our senior class,
 We give her an orange lest she forget
 The state she left before we met.
- Carolyn Locke.....Basketball
 Carolyn is a tomboy
 She prefers this ball,
 Let her use it and enjoy herself
 And be in shape for fall.
- Marion Davis.....Lipstick
 Keep this lipstick close at hand
 For it makes your lips look grand,
 When you see your own reflection
 We hope it brings fond recollection.
- Phyllis Bridge.....Lampshade
 Phyllis has such vampish glances
 That she puts the men in trances,
 And so to her we give this shade
 To dim the light already made.
- Saverio Scavotto.....Drum
 He's got a pair of drumming sticks
 But he hasn't got a drum,
 We'll give him this new one
 So he can make it hum.
- William Richards.....Jumping Jack
 Bill is always jumping 'round
 Just like a jumping jack,
 He hops away but not to stay
 And very soon hops back.
- Thomas Smyth.....China Egg
 For raising hens Tom takes the prize
 His hens lay eggs of football size,
 Here is one that is a fake
 You can drop it and it won't break.
- Mitchell Raffia.....Overalls
 Mitchell is a farmer too
 And his labors are not few,
 The hoeing or plowing he must do -
 Or the winter months will be blue.
- Allan Comrie.....Gavel
 With this gavel you can make a dent
 So bang away to your heart's content,
 We hope that it will help your progress
 So someday you can be seen in congress.
- Anthony D'Lorenzo.....Horseshoe
 We give this horseshoe we wish you luck
 Hoping you'll earn a million bucks,
 And we hope that when you die
 You'll leave a million to Enfield High.
- Warren Collins.....Megaphone
 Your voice is a slow and sleepy drawl
 And we never hear you give a call, We'll give you this megaphone to make it grow
 So that all can hear wherever you go.
- Madison Tower.....Clown
 Madison acts just like a clown
 Knitting some childish prank,
 You never see him wearing a frown
 With Cantor he should rank.
- Genevieve Muzyka.....Fashion Book
 Genevieve you've been so classy
 In your dressing we've scanned,
 As a young modern lassie
 Old-fashioned ideas you've banned.
- Florence Sperry.....Baby Bonnet
 To the baby of our class
 We present this bonnet,
 And we hope the little lass
 Will someday want to don it.
- Elizabeth Leete.....Commute Ticket
 Betty's work is out of town
 And she doesn't think its funny,
 So we give to her this ticket
 And she won't need any money.
- Gerald O'Connor.....Honey
 Your voice is like an old fog horn
 And like a bass drum too,
 So eat some of this honey every morn
 Then your voice will be sweet and new.

CLASS PRESENTATIONS—Part II

(By Stella Poleski and Robert Bergen)

Joseph Angelica.....Mustache Wax
 Joe on his upper lip is trying to grow
 Something that everyone ought to know,
 What it is we soon shall tell
 With Mustache Wax to curl it well.

Frank Barszcz.....Fan
 The boy of Blushing Fame
 When girls are near he is not the same,
 For weeks he's worked upon a plan
 To hide his blushing behind a Fan.

Charles Di Sciacca.....Bottle of Liniment
 Chick Di Sciacca plays football well
 This liniment we give him, not to sell,
 We hope he will use it when in need
 As we know it will give him plenty of speed.

Allyn Eddy.....Mile Gauge
 Allyn who runs a very fast mile
 Knows that this gauge will be very worthwhile,
 And when he sets a terrific pace
 We know he'll come home at the head of the race.

James Furey.....Drinking Cup
 A debator is James Furey
 Who clears his throat when in a fury,
 This drinking cup is what we suggest
 To keep his voice at the very best.

Robert Hastings.....Box of Pepper
 A box of pepper, a bag of salt,
 A box of sugar and a keg of malt;
 Of these we give only the pepper
 To make of you, a real high stepper.

Amelia Jesmainski.....Scissors
 Amelia has cut out many things
 They have always come out the best,
 To help her we give these scissors
 Now it's up to her to do the rest.

Virginia Pascucci.....Sage Tea
 You have such jet black hair
 You must give it the best of care,
 The blacker it will be
 If you'll use this Sage Tea.

James Sperry.....Bag of Flour
 When James comes walking down the street
 And sees a girl who is very sweet,
 It makes him blush and he quickens his pace
 Now flour is what you need, to cover your face.

Phillip La Russa.....Salesmanship Book
 Phil works in a hardware store
 And always gives a good buy,
 This salesmanship book will help him
 When he meets with a tougher guy.

Walter Los.....Crown
 Walter in the eyes of every track fan
 Is the best man that ever ran,
 So to him we give this crown
 Now we'll have to keep him bound.

William Cowles.....Copy of Tiger Rag
 Bill when with the girls is very slow
 He really needs something to make him go,
 So we'll give him this copy of Tiger Rag
 And as for the rest, it's in the bag.

Joseph Labutis.....Baseball
 Joe is our high school pitcher
 And a very good one at that,
 To him we give this baseball
 To strike them out at bat.

Chester Haber.....Adhesive Tape
 Chester Haber that noisy young man
 Is competition for any band,
 This adhesive tape will help
 To stop him when he starts to yelp.

Mary Fay.....Rubber Soles
 Just before the close of school
 Mary delivers detentions, as a rule,
 In your shoes there may be holes
 So patch them up with rubber soles.

William Fuge.....Football
 To Bill Fuge we give a fine football
 For we want him ready in the fall
 When he joins the Suffield Squad, beware
 He'll show them how in one short year.

- James Ainsworth Saxophone
 James Ainsworth is going to be lonesome we know
 When he leaves old Enfield, where he loves to blow,
 We are presenting him with a saxophone
 For with all that wind he'll break his own.
- Michael Falkowski Canvas
 To Mike we suggest,
 This piece of canvas, it's the best,
 For one who is to be an artist
 Now go out and try your darndest.
- Josephine Guerri Boutonniere
 A sash, a bow, a boutonniere
 Are just the things you like to wear,
 A flower for you we give right now
 And hope it will prove to be a wow.
- Henry Peters Chicken
 Peters is a very quiet fellow
 And to him who never does bellow,
 A chicken is what we prescribe
 In case he never gets a bride.
- Steven Miller Dancing Instructions
 On the dance floor Steve shines
 Because he can turn on a dime,
 When rhythm is needed to win
 We know these instructions will help him.
- Stanley Krzys Rope
 Stanley is always on the run
 And very seldom gets his work done,
 Now if he tied himself down with this cord
 More of his attention would be on the blackboard.
- Sophie Baltronis Doll
 Sophie, you know, is only a baby
 Of course she'll grow to be a fine lady,
 And while she is waiting year by year
 This little doll will give fun and cheer.
- Helen Cybulski Parrot
 She's smart, she's bright and clever
 She always shines in every endeavor;
 But Helen your voice is so soft and sweet
 You need a parrot, your words to repeat.
- Evelyn Wilson Curler
 We know that curls every day
 Are Evelyn's ambition,
 So this curler is sure
 To bring her recognition.
- Rose Pitoniak Frying Pan
 In all of your studies you did quite well
 But we hear in cooking you did excel,
 When you get married and your husband gets cross
 Pick up this frying pan and say,
 "I'm boss."
- Isabel Blowen Piano Course
 Since studying music is your desire
 No piano teacher need you hire,
 If you'll follow this course through
 It will make a Paderewski of you.
- Evelyn Hyde Chewing Gum
 At chewing gum you've often been caught
 And many's the package that you've bought,
 So here's a package that always serves
 To please your palate and calm your nerves.
- Charles Gatto, Raymond Therrian,
 Armand Sarno Links
 Chick, Ray, and Armand are almost in tears
 They have stuck together thru these four years,
 Now don't think our little gift is a jinx
 You won't have to separate, if you use these links.
- Stella Lizak Nail Polish
 Your finger nails are so sparkling and bright
 You must be polishing half the night,
 If you run out of polish don't start to sigh
 Just think of this bottle, it's an extra supply.
- Anna Mokrycki Cart
 We gave to your brother a handsome horse,
 We know you'll want to help, of course,
 So we chose for you this little cart Just hitch them together and be ready to start.

Genevieve Star.....Can of Dynamite
 Her voice is just a whisper
 She's such a little mite,
 Gen, try to make yourself heard
 With this can of dynamite.

Valda Yaenicki.....Onion Resounding far and near Valda's eternal laugh we hear,
 This big onion we are sure
 Will be quite effective as a cure.

Eleanor Pianka.....Whistle
 As a student you have certainly excelled
 And your own in all studies have held,
 But gosh, Oh gee, you're Oh! so quiet
 Take this whistle and start a riot.

Vivian Antinore.....Bag of Cookies
 Slowly, slowly, you chew and munch
 Quietly eating your mid-day lunch, These cookies are the thing, we believe
 To give as a present before you leave.

Frances Vella.....Cook Book
 We have often heard of husbands who have strayed
 Because of the meals young brides have made,
 So we present a cook book with this suggestion
 Follow it, and keep the man of your selection.

Josephine Gatto, Jennie Santanella
Bicycle Built for Two Each day these two ride home from school
 Never once did they break this rule,
 So the thing most appropriate for you
 Is this little bicycle built for two.

Bertha Ziemian.....Order Book
 In your father's store you work
 Always busy, never shirk,
 This order book will aid we're sure Bigger and better business to secure.

Edward Ingraham.....Sail Boat
 In this sail boat you'll sail away
 Scour the sea for many a day;
 After you've grown rich in other lands
 Steer your course for our sands.

Lillian Gardner.....Crank
 We know you live out of town
 And have a car to get around;
 You'll need aid some day no doubt
 So take this crank to help you out.

Eleanor King.....Bee
 Oh say can your hear
 Buzzing at your ear?
 It's only Eleanor, you see
 Buzzing like a bumble bee.

Stanley Kwiecienski.....Dream Book
 Sleep, sleep, is his delight
 He sleeps all day, plays all night;
 Here's a dream book with this guarantee
 To analyze your dreams of plea-suantry.

Christine Verdi.....Thermometer
 Ahem! Hark! A commanding voice is heard
 Christine Verdi to provocation is stirred;
 When you get heated and red in the face
 This thermometer tells when to slow down the pace.

William Sloan.....Alarm Clock
 There have been many days in this school year
 When teacher said, "Is Sloan here?"
 Slowly, in wanders Willie but 10 minutes late
 An alarm clock with you will rank first rate.

Stanley Parvelac.....Muzzle
 He always feels the cheery powers of spring
 It makes him whistle, it makes him sing,
 He talks and talks to excess
 Quick! a muzzle for our pest.

Robert Furey.....Dollar Bill
 Speed, here is a one dollar Bill
 We hope it will please you
 Just one-half as well,
 As the Buck you have from Hazard-ville.

Richard Snyder.....Golf Instructions
 Richard has started to take up golf
 And has not yet been polished off,
 We know this instruction book will help
 When he wants to give the ball a belt.

- Roy Broege.....Little Austin
Every afternoon Roy goes calling We hope he gets there before it's too late;
So we give him this little Austin
To make sure he keeps Jane's date.
- Edward White.....Tennis Racket
Ed is quite a man on the courts
Even though he doesn't wear shorts,
We present to him this little racket Take good care of it under your jacket.
- Chester Simborski.....Cow
Simborski is a farm hand
But doesn't care for land,
He specializes in judging cows Practice on this one, right now.
- Stanley Sidor.....Straw Hat
Sidor works on a farm
Way out in an open lot;
This straw hat will help him
When the sun gets very hot.
- Walter Sas.....Parachute
Sas is a very good track star
And stands a good six foot;
Sometimes he's far above the bar
So come down in this parachute.
- Eileen Cote.....Ankle Socks
Little girls have always passed
With ankle socks to every class;
These new anklets of baby blue Are just the thing, we believe for you.
- Catherine Hedenburg.....Shampoo
Catherine a high hat has donned
Because gentlemen prefer blonds;
You soon may be in for some stiff competition
This shampoo will keep your hair in condition.
- George Ganner.....Book
A book to him who learned not at all
For idly, George sat, hour by hour
And watched the dead leaves fall,
Or mused upon a common flower.
- Phyllis Maxellon.....Pad of Paper
Phyllis is certainly quite a lass Busily writing in every class;
Homework? No! Of course not,
Here's paper on which your notes to jot.
- Jennie Barszcz.....Tin Pan
Jennie is a quiet lass
Hardly a sound in any class;
Let yourself go and bang away
On this tin pan, make merry, be gay.
- Dorothy Adams.....Hair Tonic
Long curls once had our Dorothy
Her crowning glory—a joy to see;
But now they are gone, Alas!
 Alack!
Do try this hair tonic to bring them back.
- Ruth Gourlie.....Walking Shoes
What is that? Left, Right, Left, Right,
'Round the corner, behold the sight;
Your feet are tired marching all the while
These walking shoes will carry you many a mile.
- Mary Moran.....Sugar
Beautiful faces are they that wear
The light of a pleasant spirit there;
Some sugar for you, Mary dear
To keep you smiling for many a
year.
- Rita O'Brien.....Needle and Thread
A needle and thread to this little miss
Is appropriate to those who know her;
And our advice to her is this Keep on, as Enfield's most clever sewer.
- Charles Padegimas.....Blue Ribbon
Everybody is proud of Charley
Because he judges very well,
We give him this blue ribbon
It may help him, who can tell.
- William Hanrahan.....Coat Hanger
To Bill Hanrahan that peppy boy
Delivering clothes is a real joy,
To make his work more complete
Here's a coat hanger new and neat.
- Walter Landry.....Book on Baseball Facts
Walter gets a book on baseball facts Because he argues whether right or wrong,
So now if perchance we meet him
He must sing another song.
- David Martin.....Bell
David is a quiet lad
You never can tell when he is mad,
So to him we give this little bell
To let us know when all is well.
- Classmates
Classmates, now that our work is ended
We hope no one has been offended,
Please remember it was only in fun Here's success and happiness to everyone.

ADVICE TO UNDERGRADUATES

(By Eliot M. Donnelly)

I have been selected by the senior class to keep up the tradition of Enfield by trying to give you undergraduates some unwanted but much needed advice. It is granted that the majority of you will not appreciate this worthwhile advice but there is a bare possibility that there are a few of you who may realize its value. I shall try to make it simple enough so that the best of you will at least have an idea of what I am talking about. Now if you underclassmen will relax I shall endeavor to point out to you the great deeds of the Senior Class.

The school paper which has proven itself an interesting and successful project was founded by the Seniors, who took great pains to bring you the latest news of Enfield. This paper, if properly handled, should be a great asset to the school.

The Seniors then started the home room organization which later extended and formed the nucleus for the delegate assembly which in time set up a new form of student government.

A few members of the Senior Class organized and called themselves the "Camera Club" which has created a new interest for the students.

JUNIORS: We are not speaking to you because of whom you are but because of what you are. Words cannot describe you. It is a shame that the leadership of Enfield should be left to you for the coming year—or more.

I feel that I should warn you of the hardships and difficulties you are about to undertake as Seniors, but I feel certain that with the cooperation shown in your recent Prom you are destined to break records—"phonograph records." Keep up your good work and there will be no more dances at Enfield. We hear that you are planning to run a food sale. If this is a failure why don't you try knitting. We have been watching you ever since the day you entered the portals of "dear old Enfield" as freshmen. Outside of the fact that you are steadily growing worse we have noticed no changes in you. We trust that you will try to uphold the high ideals set for you by the Class of '37.

SOPHOMORES: We hope that you will be able to show the Juniors what to do if necessary and try to follow their leadership, if any. You will no doubt find this very hard to do as you have been so dependent on the Seniors. We hope that you will try to better yourselves and follow the example set for you by your sister class. Try to stand on your own two legs as we believe it will be extremely necessary in the future when the Juniors are at the helm.

I advise you to try getting to class on time, and do not whisper all through class period. Also remain in class long enough to make the acquaintance of your instructors as you will benefit greatly by it.

FRESHMEN: Of all the insignificant little babies you are the worst. I have never seen or hope to see a more hopeless class in all my life. To be sure you are great in number but when it came to passing out the brains where were you? Although you tried very hard to appear as grownups you seemed to overlook the fact that you are wearing ankle socks and kneepants, I advise you to remedy this situation before next fall. We know you like to chew gum, freshmen, but why chew it as though it were a plug of tobacco, when there are so many human methods. I advise you to watch your step while wandering through the halls next year as you are liable to be stepped on by the upper classmen. To do this you should learn to walk with your heads beneath the clouds.

In closing may I assume a more solemn tone? We thank you for your cooperation, underclassmen in all our activities and wish you success in all your future ventures.

RESPONSE FOR UNDERGRADUATES

(By John T. Clarkin)

Brother Seniors, we thank you for the worthy advice, but it isn't necessary. I know that we will be just a continuance of what we have been during the last three years, only we won't be burdened by the bulk of you Seniors. It will be a great blow oh, true, too true, but we will be brave.

It is well that the Senior representative speaks in simple language if he wants his fellow classmates to enjoy tonight's program.

Speaking of chewing gum as the Freshman hobby, I'll bet Baronians sold out their supply of gum as I have noticed that quite a few jaws on the stage tonight are busily engaged in their favorite pastime.

Seniors—don't tell anyone, but the "Camera Club" has been organized and running smoothly for four years. We know this will be a great surprise, but we realize that you Seniors can't possibly remember back that far.

As for having Senior members on every athletic team, we underclassmen think it only right that all water and bat boy positions should be filled by capable Seniors.

Seniors, common words cannot describe us. Of course, words cannot describe us. Where do you think, Irvin Berlin got his inspiration for that number one smash hit, "You're Just Too Marvelous for Words."

But in all seriousness, we are sincerely sorry at your departure, and we want everyone here to know that you showed fine leadership during your past four years in Enfield.

In Memoriam

This little memorial is dedicated to Frank Cybulski, a member of our Senior Class, whose spiritual presence is felt by us at our commencement. He was just a fun-loving, ordinary school boy, retiring, quiet, cheerful, conscientious, and likeable. Frank was a graduate of the Alvin D. Higgins School of the Class of '33, and was also a member of the St. Adelbert Drum Corp. He was seventeen years old and a Senior when he was taken away from us by a Greater Power. To Frank we give this last salute and tribute.

WILL OF THE CLASS OF 1937

(By James A. Furey)

Know all men by these presents, that we, the class of nineteen hundred thirty-seven, of the Enfield High School, in the Town of Enfield, county of Hartford, State of Connecticut, being of sound mind, memory, and judgment, do hereby make and declare, and publish this our last will and testament and do earnestly desire that these, our last requests be carried out as hereinafter directed:

First: To Mr. Karl D. Lee, our principal, and to the faculty we give and bequeath our most sincere respect and continued appreciation for their wise guidance throughout our years at Enfield.

Second: To Mrs. Eddy we leave a Baseball Bat to be used in quieting the next year's Senior home room.

Third: We leave Janice Eugley's talk and mischievous habits to Ruth Green.

Fourth: We leave Bill Fuge's technique as dancer and lover to Kenneth Leach.

Fifth: We leave George Nye's well studied book on Mathematics to next year's Mathematics class.

Sixth: We leave Elliot Donnelly's sagacity to Johnny Hanrahan who we feel is very capable of handling the job.

Seventh: To some thoughtful Junior we leave Carl Johnson's unsolved theories in Chemistry.

Eighth: To the students at large we leave the job of carrying on the good support so far advanced by the school.

Ninth: To the school we leave the task of finding a new business manager to step into the shoes of Stanley Parvelac.

Tenth: We leave to the Junior Class the joy of keeping on with the Washington Trip and of taking some unusual snaps with the candid camera.

Eleventh: We leave to the Juniors the honor of becoming dignified Seniors to fill the vacancies in room 26.

Twelfth: We leave William Richard's everlasting giggles to smiling Billy Connor.

Thirteenth: We bequeath to David Johnson the honor of fulfilling Eleanor Smyth's position as piano player for the High School Orchestra.

Fourteenth: To Joseph, Handlebar Hank, Angelica, we leave a razor to shave off that famous mustache of his.

Fifteenth: We bequeath Josephine Zawada's exceptional ability to flirt with the boys to Grace Furey.

Sixteenth: We leave Genevieve McCormack's key tapping technique to Mary Raissi.

Seventeenth: We leave to Ralph August, Robert "Rudy Vallee" Hasting's ability to play the saxaphone.

Eighteenth: We leave Walter Los's record breaking running ability to some underclassman capable of filling the task.

Nineteenth: To our clubs we leave the task of keeping on with the good work which was so nobly advanced by us.

Twentieth: We pass on to the Juniors the important task of carrying on the "Enfield Hi-Static."

Twenty-first: We leave Ned Hines' romantic personality to Reginald Charrette.

Twenty-second: We leave John Ferguson two pounds of Axle Grease in order that he might grease the inside of Edwin Smyth's Ford.

Twenty-three: We request that Walter Landry's next employer let him home on time because he is an ardent follower of "Little Orphan Annie."

Twenty-fourth: To some fortunate Junior, we leave Wanda Zawada's ability to serve Mrs. Eddy's detention slips in the morning and not in the afternoon.

Twenty-fifth: All the remaining property, which has not been disposed of by this will we leave to the High School to be used in future years.

We hereby appoint Mr. Lee, our principal, sole executor of this, our last will and testament.

In WITNESS WHEREOF, we the CLASS OF 1937, set our hand and seal this twenty-third day of June, nineteen hundred and thirty-seven.

CLASS SONG

Words and Music by Charles Gatto

We've been true to our school dear old Enfield,
And we sing our parting song.
Though Life's duties crowd our future,
For our school days we will long.

Blue and Gold we shall always remember.
We have dwelt in friendship true.
Our thanks, dear old school, we render
For tonight—farewell to you.

WE ARE AS CAREFUL IN BUYING FURNITURE AS YOU ARE

Furniture is different from almost anything else you buy. There are four elements in really good furniture: Dependable design, style, honest workmanship and honest wood. When we buy furniture for our stock, we have in mind always the satisfaction that it must give you. IT PAYS TO BUY AT HOME.
